

International Place of The Claremont Colleges

THURSDAY LUNCH AND CONVERSATION PROGRAM

Fall 2009

Lunch featuring international cuisine served from 11:45 AM. Program begins at 12:15 PM.

*McKenna Auditorium, CMC Campus
(next to I- Place)*

Meal cards appreciated toward cost of lunch, but not required. No charge for faculty/staff of The Claremont Colleges. $6.00 for all others.

No charge to attend program only.

-
- September 24 Saul Sandoval Perea, Doctoral Student, School of Politics and Economics, Claremont Graduate University, "Perceptions and Realities of Mexico's Police Force"
- October 1 William Christian, Director of Amargosa River Project, The Nature Conservancy of California, "Desert Energy and Climate Change"
- October 8 Ashley Baugh, CMC Student '10, Greer Donley, CMC Student '09, "Ending the Poverty Cycle: Maternal and Child Nutrition In Honduras"
- October 22 Paula Palmer, Director, Global Programs, School of Community and Global Health, Claremont Graduate University, "The Aftermath of the Indian Ocean Tsunami in Communities in India and Sri Lanka" Celebrating United Nations Day
- October 29 Afshin Khan, Pomona College student '11, "Lost in 'facts' and figures: The Heard and Unheard Stories of Internally Displaced People in Pakistan"
- November 5 Chetan Ghate, Professor, Indian Statistical Institute-Delhi Center; Visiting Professor, School of Politics and Economics, Claremont Graduate University, "India's Growth Turnaround"